

The American Consulate General in Jerusalem Announces
The FY 2017 Global Undergraduate Student Exchange Program (Global UGRAD)

DEADLINE: December 31, 2016

The American Consulate General in Jerusalem is pleased to announce the competition for the 2017 Global Undergraduate Student Exchange Program (Global UGRAD). The Global Undergraduate Exchange Program (Global UGRAD) provides a diverse group of emerging leaders with a scholarship for one semester of non-degree academic study at a U.S. college or university. The program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, and aims to recruit participants from underrepresented, non-elite backgrounds. Successful applicants can expect an in-depth exposure to U.S. society, culture, and academic institutions, as well as an opportunity to enhance their professional skills. All participants will be enrolled in full-time, non-degree, undergraduate course work chosen from their host institution's existing curriculum. Participants will be required to take one, 3-credit U.S. studies course to enhance their understanding of the United States. Participants will live in campus housing facilities with American peers, and will be required to participate in twenty hours of community service. There will also be a virtual arrival orientation and an in-person end-of-program workshop.

For application information and instructions, please visit www.worldlearning.org/ugrad.

Eligibility for the Global UGRAD Program:

1. Applicants must be Palestinian residents of Jerusalem, the West Bank, or Gaza and must be currently studying in their place of residence.
2. Scholarships will be granted to students who currently are enrolled in full-time undergraduate programs only, having completed a minimum of their first semester of study. Participants must have at least one semester or an equivalent term to complete at their home institutions upon completion of the Global UGRAD Program.
3. Applicants should demonstrate leadership potential through academic work, community involvement, and extracurricular activities.
4. Applicants must demonstrate a command of written and spoken English. The TOEFL exam will be required of those selected as finalists or alternates.
5. Preference will be given to those who have had little or NO experience in the U.S. or outside of their home countries.
6. Applicants must be committed to return directly to their home country after the completion of the program.
7. Applicants are over 18 years of age.

Application process:

The online application will be open from November 2 until December 31. For application information and instructions, please visit www.worldlearning.org/ugrad.

Inquires

Jerusalem and West Bank Applicants: Please send an email to Jerusalemexchanges@state.gov or call 02-622-7161 for more information.

Gaza Applicants: Please send an email GazaExchanges@gmail.com or call 08-286-4623 for more information.